

HW [24]: Translate to Arabic and do the proper Tashkeel. Memorize the vocab.

I have done few as examples.

Summary of applicable rules:

1. Rule 1010-1: The past tense verb is always Fatha.
2. Rule 1010-2: The present tense verb is Marfo^.
3. Rule 1120: The subject is Marfo^.
4. Rule 1130: The object is Mansoob.
5. Change nouns from single form into the desired form by:
 - a. Rule 230-1 All male dual nouns are made of the single noun then adding to the end either Alif Noon (اِن), if Marfo^, or Ya'a Noon (يِن), if Mansoob.
 - b. Rule 230-2 All male dual nouns are made of the single noun then convert the female Ta'a into open Ta'a, then adding to the end either Alif Noon (اِن), if Marfo^, or Ya'a Noon (يِن), if Mansoob.
 - c. Rule 240-1: Regular male plural nouns are made of the singular form with either Waw Noon (وُن), if Marfo^, or Ya'a Noon (يِن), if Mansob, added to the end
 - d. Rule 240-2: The regular female plural is made by replacing the female Ta'a with Alif-Ta'a (ات)
6. Rule 280:
 - a. Singular nouns and irregular plurals are made Marfo^ by Damma and made Mansoob by Fatha.
 - b. Dual nouns are made Marfo^ by Alif and Mansob by Ya'a
 - c. Regular Male Plural are made Marfo^ by Waw and Mansob by Ya'a
 - d. Regular female plural are made Marfo^ with Dama and Mansob by Kasra.
7. Rule 270-1: The Tanween exists only for no Alif-Lam in the cases of singular nouns, regular female plural and irregular plurals.
8. To place Tanween fatha, you add Alif and then put the Tanween on the top. Exceptions if you end with Female Ta'a or Hamza.
9. If the subject of a verb is female, then you add the female Ta'a to the end of the past tense verb.
